

Expressive Arts Opportunities BGN Sixth Form

Theatre in Transit - This is our new theatre company which is available to join for any Expressive Arts' student in the Sixth Form. This company offers students the opportunity to perform to a wider audience in the community of Banbury. Plays will be auditioned for and performed each academic year.

Speech and Drama examinations - This is an exciting opportunity available to any Expressive Arts' student in BGN sixth form. Students can take examinations up to Grade 8 in Acting and Public Speaking. These classes will run on a Tuesday lunchtime and afterschool. The higher grades achieved offer UCAS points and can be used in a university/Drama School application. See the attached websites for more information of the examinations; www.lamda.org.uk/examinations and www.esbuk.org

NCFE Level 3 Certificate in Art and Design or Photography

examinations - Would you like to gain extra UCAS points and support your Expressive Arts A Level? This qualification, which is available for any Expressive Arts' student in the Sixth Form, has been designed to encourage learners to develop their skills in using different materials and techniques, creating ideas and producing art pieces. You would take this during enrichment, lunch and afterschool sessions. Support for Art, Music and Drama Extended Project - Are you doing an Expressive Arts at A Level and have you chosen to do a practical project for your Extended Project? Enrichment time can be used to develop your skills within the Drama, Music and Art rooms with advice from the teachers.

Art, Music and Drama in the community - Would you like to develop links within the community and use Music, Art, Drama or Photography to create Artistic outcomes? Expressive Arts students could use their Enrichment time to independently visit primary schools to run workshops for others. Are you doing Duke of Edinburgh? Could you develop this opportunity into meeting the criteria for your award? Are there any other artistic opportunities (choirs, music groups, murals) within the community which you could support Music exams – Did you know that ABRSM exams offer extra UCAS points?
