

For our BGN Whole School Mission week in Business we have been focusing on the theme of hope by looking at the truth behind low priced clothing

BBC News

In order to increase public awareness of child poverty, a charity publishes unpleasant images of children that upset the public

A sportswear business moves production of its trainers to a country that uses child labour in order to reduce its costs

A clothes shop adopts a "Zero Hours contract" policy with all new staff

A bank make 1000 retail staff redundant, but pays its Directors huge bonuses

Tutor 2 you

This has really made me think twice about buying fast fashion from low-cost retailers
